CMS Style Guide

WHAT IS IT?

Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) is used for writing and citation styles within the humanities (most commonly used in publishing).

CMS provides format of:

- manuscript preparation
- grammar
- publication information
- the two CMS documentation styles:
  - (1) Notes-Bibliography System used in literature, history, and the arts
  - (2) Author-Date System used in the sciences

WHERE CAN I FIND IT?

ONLINE

(OWL) Purdue: http://owl.english.purdue.edu/

OR

Rohrbach Library's Reference Page:
http://www.kutztown.edu/library/reference/citation.asp

PRINT

Title: The Chicago Manual of Style
Reference: Z253 .U69 2003