

Discovering American Folklife: Essays on Folk Culture & the Pennsylvania Dutch

By Don Yoder

Volume IV of the Annual Publication Series of the Pennsylvania German Cultural Heritage Center

Softcover ISBN: 9781601264565, 359pp. color illus. index.

This 25th Anniversary Edition of Discovering American Folklife is a collection of essays spanning over seventy years of the work of Dr. Don Yoder, Pennsylvania's leading advocate for folklife research. Discovering American Folklife is an essential textbook in regional ethnographic studies world-wide, and remains, after twenty-five years, the quintessential text in the study of Pennsylvania's unique folk culture, including essays on folk religion, folk medicine, sectarian costume, traditional cookery, hymnody, and Saints' Legends. Dr. Don Yoder's work is at once both classic and refreshing, presenting a view of the subject that is as broad-reaching in scope and as diverse in content as the very fabric of Pennsylvania's ethnic identity.
