

The Radio Adventures of Asseba and Sabina (“Doh Wil Ich Awer!”)

By Gregory J. Hanson

Illustrated by Rachel Yoder, Foreword by Ruth Rahn Schaefer

217 page count, ISBN/Barcode: 9780998707440

Many older people in the Pennsylvania Dutch region remember stopping whatever they were doing on Sunday afternoons in the 1940s and 50s to turn on their radio and listen for the latest adventures of Asseba and Sabina, a Pennsylvania Dutch farm couple. Asseba tends to play practical jokes on his wife, who is a hard worker with high expectations. This book contains scripts of the show in both PA Dutch and English, along with some fun illustrations and background information on how all of it got started. As you read these scripts, enjoy them for their humor and philosophy in everyday life and appreciate the culture of the Pennsylvania Germans.
