

PROFESSIONAL PUBLICATIONS

Dr. Andrew Arnold, Department of History, published “Mother Jones and the Panics of 1872 and 1893” in Pennsylvania Legacies, the magazine of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Vol. 11, No. 1, May 2011.

Dr. Mary Ann Dailey, Department of Nursing, had the following historical nursing article published in the June issue of the American Journal of Nursing, the oldest (111 years) peer-reviewed nursing publication: “The fate of innocents: The foundling wheel and infant abandonment in 19th century Italy.” AJN, 111 (6), 62-63, 68-69.

Rose DeSiano, Department of Fine Arts, June 2011. Photoshop: Expert Tips. In M. Jenkinson (Ed.), Portrait Photography Course, the: Principles, practice, and techniques: The essential guide for photographers. Berkeley, CA: Peach Pit Press.

Dr. Michael P. Gabriel, Department of History, published “A Forgotten Cattle Skirmish Preceded the Battle of Bennington” Walloomsack Review: Bennington Museum (5 May 2011): 35-42 and “An Incident at the Bennington Meetinghouse, August 17, 1777” The Hessians: Journal of the Johannes Schwalm Historical Association 14 (2011): 88-92.

Dr. Eileen Hogan, Dan Benson and Dr. Donna Steslow of the College of Business published “Jonestown Jaguars (A), (B), (C)” in the Academy of Business Disciplines Journal.

Kevin McCloskey, Department of Communication Design, had two watercolor illustrations and an essay on the ASARO printmaking collective of Oaxaca, Mexico in Rendezvous: Forty Years of History, Politics and Literature of the West, a book published by Idaho University Press, 2011.

Dr. Donna Steslow and Dr. Lee Weyant, Department of Business Administration, published “Suburban Sakura Motors: Management Challenges Involving the Lemon Law” in the Journal of Business, Society and Government, July 2011.

Dr. Donna Steslow and Dr. Carolyn Gardner, Department of Business Administration, published “More than One Way to Tell a Story: Integrating Storytelling into Your Law Course” in the Journal of Legal Studies Education, Summer/Fall 2011. The article received the Hoeber Award for Outstanding 2011 Journal Article at the Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Conference in New Orleans.

Dr. Francis Vasko, Mathematics Department, and Nelya Storozhyshina (KU BS CS 2008, KU MS CS 2011), “Balancing a Transportation Problem: Is It Really That Simple?” OR Insight, Vol.24, Issue 3, pp 205-215, September, 2011.

Dr. John Walker, Department of Business Administration on wrote the following article, “Second Quarter 2011 Market and Economic Recap” that was published in the Ambassador Financial Group’s quarterly publication for banking practitioners.

Dr. John Walker and Dr. Jonathan Kramer, Department of Business Administration co-authored the following article, "Executive Compensation at U.S. Community Banks: An Empirical Study of the Relationship Between Direct Compensation and Financial Return" that was published in the North American Journal of Finance and Banking Research, Vol. 5. No. 5. 2011.

Dr. John Walker, Department of Business Administration co-authored with Henry F. Check and Karen Randall the following article, "Does the Internal Rate of Return Calculation Require a Reinvestment Rate Assumption? There is Still No Consensus" that was published in the Pennsylvania Economic Review, Volume 18, Number 1.

Dr. Glenn Walters, Criminal Justice Department, authored "Crime in a Psychological Context: From Career Criminals to Criminal Careers," Sage Publications, copyright dated is 2012 but it actually came out in print week of August 24, 2011.

Dr. Lee Weyant and Dr. Donna Steslow, Department of Business Administration, published "Peanut Valley Café: What to Do Next?" in the Journal for the International Academy of Case Studies.

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

Dr. Gary Cordner, Criminal Justice Department, presented on the National Police Research Platform at the National Institute of Justice Research & Evaluation Conference in Arlington, VA, June 20, 2011.

Cara Cotellese, Electronic Media, presented for the Instructional Technology Center in Washington, DC a video conference presentation "To speak or not to speak," teaching Public Speaking totally online. July 19, 2011.

David Cullen, Department of Music, performed in a Jazz Faculty concert as a guest artist at the West Chester University School of Music Jazz Camp on July 10th. He was a feature clinician on July 12 and 13.

Matthew Daub, Department of Fine Art, has work included in the Summer Group Exhibition at ACA Galleries in New York City. The exhibition continues from June 21 through August 12.

Rose DeSiano, Department of Fine Arts, presented an "Artist Talk" in conjunction with the exhibition "The End of the Empire" at the Grass Gallery, North Adams, MA in August 2011.

Rose DeSiano, Department of Fine Arts, exhibited work in a juried group show "UNREAL: Staged, Fantasy and Constructed Photography" at the 1650 Gallery Los Angeles, CA in September 2011.

Dr. Sylvie Dewey, Department of Modern Language Studies, attended and presented at the 25th CIEF (Conseil d'Etudes Internationales Francophones) World Congress at the Université Paul Cézanne in Aix-en-Provence, France (May 29-June 5, 2011). Her scholarly paper was entitled "Rendez-vous manqué avec l'Histoire: Nedjma, roman d'un quadruple échec". It was part of the session: "Les Cultures postcoloniales en France: Ruptures de l'Histoire entre la France et l'Algérie.

Cheryl Hochberg, Department of Fine Arts, presented "Animal Instinct", a solo exhibition of her paintings, drawings and objects at the Pennsylvania College of Technology in Williamsport, PA. She also gave a gallery talk to accompany that show at the opening on August 30, 2011. The show runs from August 28- September 28, 2011.

Dr. Lori Kent, Department of Art Education and Crafts, presented a paper entitled "How the Past Informs the Digital Future" at Goody, Silverstein & Partners, San Francisco, CA on July 8, 2011.

Dr. Kent participated in a juried group exhibition "Trinitas" at Coastal Carolina University, Conway, SC, on September 1, 2011.

Dr. Carol C. Mapes, Department of Biology, presented an invited talk entitled, "Insect and mite-induced galls on native plants" at the 2011 Native Plants in the Landscape Conference at Millersville University, Millersville, PA, June 3, 2011.

Margaret Noel, Department of Fine Arts, painting, Bethlehem Steel was selected for Grey Matter, a national juried exhibition at The Painting Center in New York City. The exhibition runs from June 21st - August 6th.

Dr. Mary Ogletree, Department of Music, performed as assistant concertmaster of the Monocacy Chamber Orchestra in the Arts at St. John's Concert Series, St. John's Lutheran Church, Allentown, PA on June 5, 2011. The program included works by Barber, Haydn and Poulenc.

Dr. Ogletree performed as collaborative pianist in a recital at Crest Hall, Allentown, PA on June 24, 2011.

Dr. Ogletree performed as soloist and concertmaster of the Pennsylvania Sinfonia Orchestra in its Valley Vivaldi summer concert series at Octave Hall, Macungie, PA on June 26, 2011, in works by Corelli, Vivaldi, J.S. Bach and other Baroque masters.

Dr. Ogletree was violin soloist in Bach's Brandenburg Concerto IV, with flutists Robin Kani and Christine Moulton, artist-faculty at Moravian College and Mansfield University, respectively, in a second Valley Vivaldi concert at Octave Hall on July 17, 2011.

Dr. Ogletree and violinist Rebecca Brown were the violin soloists in the Concerto in d minor for Two Violins and Orchestra at the third Valley Vivaldi concert, at Wesley Church in Bethlehem, PA on August 7, 2011.

Dr. Ogletree was again the violin soloist in the final concert of the Valley Vivaldi season on August 28, 2011, in the Concerto in G Major for Oboe and Violin by Handel, in Bethlehem. PA.

Roxane Rix, Department of Speech Communication and Theatre, presented at the international Advanced Workshop and Seminar in Alba Emoting in Cachagua, Chile, May 30th - June 8th 2011. Prof. Rix, the senior teacher in the US of this specialized technique for actors, presented a session on pedagogical approaches and exercises, and assisted Dr. Susana Bloch, creator of the technique (Director of Research at the Institute of Neurosciences, University of Marie and Pierre Curie, Paris, retired) throughout the workshop.

Dr. Allison Roy, Department of Biology, and Hale Thurston, Michael Taylor, and William Shuster presented an invited talk, "Shepard Creek's reverse auction for mitigating storm-water: An assessment of process and performance" for scientists (June 27) and industry (June 29) during the joint research workshop on catchment-scale storm-water retrofit for urban stream restoration, “Lessons from the Little Stringybark Creek and Shepherd Creek Projects.” in Melbourne, Australia, June 27-29, 2011.

Dr. Allison Roy, Department of Biology, and Jake Beaulieu, Matthew Hopton, Audrey Mayer, Lee Rhea, and William Shuster presented an invited talk, “Ecological responses to storm-water restoration in the Shepherd Creek watershed” during the joint research workshop on catchment-scale storm-water retrofit for urban stream restoration, “Lessons from the Little Stringybark Creek and Shepherd Creek Projects,” in Melbourne, Australia, June 27-29, 2011.

Dr. R.S. Ryan, Psychology Department, and S.P. Snoddy, presented at the 23rd Annual convention of the Association for Psychological Science, Washington, DC. The Role of Semantic Support and Equation Format in Algebra Problem Solving. May 2011.

Dr. R.S. Ryan and Dr. S.R. Howell, Psychology Department with D.W. Kappus & M.E. Wilde, Presented at the 9th Biennial Conference of the Society for Applied Research in Memory and Cognition, The Elusive Interleaving Effect: Why Doesn't Interleaving Improve Learning From Examples in Statistics? New York, N.Y. June 2011.

Dr. Donna Steslow of the Department of Business Administration presented a paper entitled “Off-Duty Fraternalism Invades the Office: A Case Study of Dosis Pharmaceuticals” at the International Conference of the Academy of Legal Studies in Business, August 13, in New Orleans.

As a member of the new-music ensemble Alarm Will Sound, Elisabeth Stimpert, Department of Music, participated in the Second Annual Mizzou New Music Festival at the University of Missouri (Columbia, MO). Concert presentations included a solo performance of “Rapture” for clarinet and multimedia electronics by Anna Clyne on July 12th, the world premiere of “Seasons: Cycle II” by Roger Reynolds on July 14th, and world premieres of eight pieces by the composer-fellows jury-selected for participation in the festival on July 16th.

Dr. Todd J. Underwood, Department of Biology, and S.G. Sealy, presented “Does an ejected cowbird egg increase the risk of nest predation in Gray Catbirds?” at the American Ornithologists’ Union meeting, Jacksonville, FL. July 27, 2011.

Dr. Francis Vasko, Mathematics Department, presented the paper and chaired the session at the Modeling and Optimization: Theory and Applications conference, “Some comments on the Classic Transportation Problem,” MOPTA, Lehigh University, Bethlehem, PA, August 18, 2011.

Dr. John Walker, Department of Business Administration, along with co-author Henry F. Check, Jr. presented the following paper at the June 2011 meeting held by the Pennsylvania Economic Association: “An Analysis of the Link Between a Community Bank’s Profitability and the Absolutely and Relative Sizes of its Loan Portfolio”.

ACTIVITIES OR ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF NOTE

Dr. Dan Aruscavage, Department of Biology, was chosen to participate in the inaugural Assessment Residency of the American Society for Microbiology (ASM) National Science Foundation (NSF) Biology Scholars program. As part of the program, he attended the intensive Measuring Student Learning Institute, held June 22-26, 2011, in Washington, DC.

David Cullen, Department of Music, performed at the pre-game festivities for the Reading Phillies on Monday June 6th and Thursday June 23rd to a crowd of over 500 people at each event.

David Cullen performed with Peter Nero and the Philly Pops at Independence Hall in Philadelphia on July 3rd.

David Cullen was a featured performer and lecturer at the West Chester University School of Music for the Jazz Camp on July 10, 12 and 13.

David Cullen performed live on BCTV, Berks Community Television on July 14th.

David Cullen performed at the Reading Phillies 1st Energy Stadium on August 11 and August 16th as part of the pre-game activities.

Rose DeSiano, Department of Fine Arts, exhibited in "Grey Matter" a group exhibition juried by Rachel Wren at The Painting Center, New York City, NY in June 2011.

Rose DeSiano exhibited in "The End of the Empire" a group exhibition juried by Richard Rand - Curator Sterling Francine Clark Art Institute, Grass Gallery, North Adams, MA in June 2011.

Rose DeSiano was selected as a juror for the "Apexart's 2012 Franchise", an international call for proposals for city specific group exhibitions to be presented anywhere in the world other than New York City in July 2011.

Rose DeSiano was selected by the Lower Manhattan Cultural Council, to participate in their Artist Summer Institute: Art Business Management/ Strategic Planning/ Targeted Marketing for Artists in July 2011.

Dr. Lori Kent, Department of Art Education and Crafts, was the recipient of National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowship, Department of Comparative Literature, Stanford University during the summer 2011.

Carver Scott Lee, Department of Music, has announced The Scott Lee Quartet has now become a group called Cloning Americana. The band has been signed by the old and venerated Sunnyside Records to release the just recorded CD "For Which It Stands". The group played a concert in June in NYC's Greenwich Village to celebrate the signing and the September 1st scheduled release.

Kevin McCloskey, Department of Communication Design, was one of 24 professors nationally selected to take part in a 5-week National Endowment for the Humanities study tour of the Maya world. He studied Maya art, including ancient murals in remote areas of Mexico's Yucatan, and Belize, June 11- July 18.

Margaret Noel, Department of Fine Arts, was awarded a solo show at the First Street Gallery in New York City in January 2012. She was selected for the show from a field of 1300 national submissions through a 2 jury process.

Margaret Noel's collages, Chicago and North Dakota, were featured in a review on June 13th, 2011 in the Romanian daily paper, Cotidianul. The review was of the Mix and Match collage exhibition in Bucharest.

Roxane Rix, Department of Speech Communication and Theatre, conducted a bilingual training session in Alba Emoting for professional actors at La Replique theatre consortium, Marseille, France, July 12-21, 2011.

Dr. Christine Saidi, Department of History, spent three weeks in Zambia doing research in rural regions of the country. She worked with researchers at the Moto Moto Museum in Mbala, Zambia interviewing elders in small rural villages. She also worked with the EU representative to Zambia to create an international exhibit of Nyau Chewa masks (Zambian male masked dancers.)

Dr. Todd J. Underwood, Department of Biology, was voted an elective member of the American Ornithologists' Union in recognition of his significant contributions to the field of ornithology and service to the union, July 2011.

Lee A. Vedder, Department of Fine Arts, served as an independent curator and art historian from June 3 – September 5, 2011. She is currently working as a Collections Management Consultant for the Kornberg School of Dentistry at Temple University in Philadelphia, where she is engaged in the photography and digital cataloging as well as the upgrading of storage of an important historic dental collection--dental instruments, materials, equipment, photographs, artwork, publications, and archives--in accordance with museum standards. She is also working with the Antonio Salemme Foundation in Allentown, PA, conducting primary and secondary source research on the Italian/ American artist Antonio Salemme (1892-1995) and developing a checklist and proposal for a traveling exhibition exploring his career as a portrait sculptor in New York City during the 1920s and 1930s within a broad historical and contemporary context.

PROFESSIONAL CONFERENCES ATTENDED

Dr. Gary Cordner, Criminal Justice Department, attended the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) conference in Cincinnati, OH, July 27-31, 2011 as a member of the Commission.

Dr. Soojin Kim and Dr. Yongjae Kim, Both of the Department of Sport Management, June 3, 2011. Presented at the 2011 North American Society for Sport Management Conference, London, Ontario, Canada: "Application of Diffusion Theory: A Case Study of the New Golf Product Market."

Roxane Rix, Department of Speech Communication and Theatre, attended the international Advanced Workshop and Seminar in Alba Emoting in Cachagua, Chile, May 30th - June 8th 2011.

Dr. Donna Steslow presented a paper entitled “Off-Duty Fraternalization Invades the Office: A Case Study of Dosis Pharmaceuticals” at the International Conference of the Academy of Legal Studies in Business, August 13, in New Orleans.

Dr. Francis Vasko, Mathematics Department, attended the Modeling and Optimization: Theory and Applications (MOPTA 2011) conference, Lehigh University, Bethlehem, PA, August 17-19, 2011.

Dr. John Walker of the Department of Business Administration attended the Pennsylvania Economic Association meeting in June 2011. He was a discussant for a paper titled, “A Study of the Cost Efficiency of Indian Commercial Banks – An Impact of Mergers.”

IMPORTANT DATES

October 6, 2011	Ku Presents! Eileen Ivers & Immigrant Soul “Celtic Craziiness”
October 20, 2011	KU Presents! Ursa Minor’s Café: Gerald Clayton “Groovin’ Jazz”
October 27, 2011	Council of Trustees meeting
November 10, 2011	KU Presents! Calder Quartet & So Percussion
December 3, 2011	KU Presents! Children’s Series: The Snowman & KU Christmas Spectacular
December 15, 2011	Council of Trustees meeting
January 26, 2012	Council of Trustees meeting
March 22, 2012	Council of Trustees meeting
April 26, 2012	Council of Trustees meeting
June 21, 2012	Council of Trustees meeting