Maroon Coaching Staff

Head Coach: Troy Hein

Hein is an honorary coach for the Maroon Team. Hein is a native of Portola, Calif. He graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas, in 1996. Troy's broadcasting career began in college, as a play by play announcer for area high school basketball. He was the station manager of his college radio station, and sports director for the college television station.

Troy came to WFMZ from KLTW in Tyler, Texas, where he was sports reporter/anchor. Troy has been WFMZ's sports director and main sports anchor since 2000, also producing and hosting the award winning football program, The Big Ticket. Troy has won two Associated Press awards for his work at WFMZ. Troy also enjoys volunteering with some area charity organizations.

When Troy isn't working, he still enjoys playing sports, mostly basketball and golf. And he enjoys spending time with his wife, Happi.

Head Coach Raymond Monica

Raymond Monica became the 14th head football coach at Kutztown University in March 2006.

In his first season at KU, Monica's squad doubled the win totals from 2005, as the Golden Bears finished 4-6 overall. KU was 2-4 in the PSAC East. In 2007, Kutztown improved to 5-6 overall, tying for third in the division with a 2-3 record. In 2008, Kutztown was 5-6 overall, improving to 4-3 in the PSAC East - tying KU's single-season record for wins in the division.

Monica will enter his fourth season in 2009. He has a 14-18 overall record, 8-10 in the PSAC East.

"We've built a solid foundation over the past three years," Monica said. "We want to compete for the PSAC East Championship and get into the Division II playoffs. We will be a physical team and will be talented in all aspects of the game - offense, defense and special teams."

Monica, 43, came to Kutztown after serving as defensive coordinator at Division I-A Temple University for eight seasons, including the final seven as assistant head coach. During his tenure at Temple, Monica also guided the inside linebackers and defensive line.

Bear Bites

Monica, a native of Garyville, La., resides in Berks County with his wife, Linda. They are the parents of Ray (15), Lindsey (12) and Austin (4).
