

Call for applications:

Commission on Human Diversity Social Justice Award

The Kutztown University Commission on Human Diversity is pleased to announce the Commission on Human Diversity Social Justice Student Award. The awards recognize Kutztown University students who embody an ongoing commitment to critical social justice through campus and community activities such as: Areas of study and research, writing, performance, artmaking and service.

Aligned with the mission of the commission, the students work must be related to various dimensions of multiculturalism, diversity, social justice, inclusion and equity and accessibility with in relationship to any facet of human diversity, including race/ethnicity, social class, sexuality, gender, ability, language, religion, and geography.

Eligibility for the Award:

- Any undergraduate/graduate full or part time student
- A student with a good academic standing
- Any major on campus

Candidates should submit a 300-500 word essay demonstrating the following:

- A commitment to critical social justice in word and action through campus and community activities such as: Areas of study and research, writing, performance, artmaking and service.

To apply go to:

<https://forms.gle/b7qw9PmwhthTy2YM8>

Applications are due by: May 5th, 2020

Students will be honored at the beginning of the fall 2020 semester and presented with a certificate and $100 gift certificate to the KU bookstore. Up to three students will be awarded.

Questions? Contact Dr. Wunder at wunder@kutztown.edu