Dr. Amy Lynch-Binieck

Abstract: Writing is a technology that not only demonstrates what we already know, but aids us in working through complex concepts, uncovering our own perspectives, and learning new material. This workshop will help you design writing-to-learn assignments for your classroom.

About the speaker: Amy Lynch-Binieck has a doctorate in Composition & Rhetoric from IUP and has served as Composition Coordinator at KU since 2011. She has published in College Composition & Communication, Academic Labor: Research & Artistry, Open Words: Access & English Studies, and Composition Forum. Her edited collection Contingency, Exploitation, and Solidarity: Labor and Action in English Composition was the winner of the Council of Writing Program Administrators Best Book Award in 2019.
