Student Learning Outcome (SLO) #7: Demonstrate an understanding of various models for the development of the whole self.

Definition: Students identify best practices for self-development in areas such as finance, wellness, spiritual well-being, academic success, and professional motivation. Life skills and life-long learning are emphasized.

This SLO is met in the General Education FYS – Discovering College and the First year Seminar Course.

In SLO #7 and the accompanying rubric, "models" refers to the sets of best practices for college-level student success in several areas, including but not limited to: observing financial literacy; reaching personal or spiritual wellness; or attempting academic or professional accomplishment.
