Kutztown University of Pennsylvania Vision

Kutztown University will serve the Commonwealth as a dynamic, technologically advanced, collaborative, learning-centered public university. Kutztown University will be accessible to Pennsylvanians and others, sensitive to the need for diverse backgrounds in its faculty, staff, students, and community, accountable to its many constituencies, and actively engaged in the continuous improvement of its programs and services. Above all, Kutztown University will prepare graduates to succeed in a global economy, to contribute to the economic and social well being of the state and nation, to assume active roles in their communities and to lead productive and meaningful lives.

University History

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania began as Keystone State Normal School on September 7, 1866. Since then the school has changed names with its changing responsibilities. On May 29, 1928 the name changed to Kutztown State Teachers College to celebrate its status as a leading trainer of teachers, and in January of 1960 when its curriculum was updated to include wider liberal arts programs, its name was changed to Kutztown State College. On July 1, 1983 the State System of Higher Education was formed and along with the thirteen other state colleges, the schools name changed to Kutztown University of Pennsylvania.

Location

The borough of Kutztown is located in Berks County in southeastern Pennsylvania. Kutztown is midway between Reading and Allentown. The town is approximately 2 hours from New York City, 1.5 hours from Philadelphia and Harrisburg, and 3 hours from
