THE QUILT WE BUILT

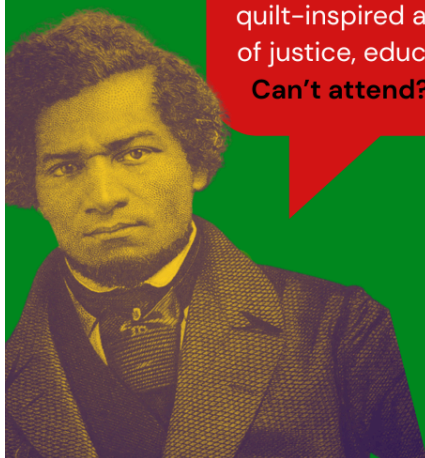

THE DOUGLASS PAPER QUILT PROJECT

FEBRUARY 19, 2026 | 11:00 - 12:00 PM

Join the Frederick Douglass Institute at the Multicultural Center's Ujima Conference for an interactive presentation on the Douglass Paper Quilt Project, featuring FDI Director Dr. Amber Pabon (COE), Faculty Scholar Professor Anthony Smith (VPA), and FDI Student Scholars Jeremiah Purvis (LAS), Aaliyah Nelson (COE), and Devin Looney (LAS).

Together, they explore how art, history, culture, and lived experience shape identity, teaching, and collective memory. Participants will engage in dialogue and a hands-on, quilt-inspired activity connecting Frederick Douglass's legacy to contemporary issues of justice, education, and civic responsibility. Register below to guarantee your space!

Can't attend? The Paper Quilt will be on display in the Unity Room until 4:00 PM.
