

Philosophy

Research Embedded in Curriculum:

- Senior Seminar in Philosophy (required for the major) is conducted as Individualized Instruction in which a student writes a senior thesis. There is an oral examination of the senior thesis by three faculty members. All upper-level courses are writing intensive with most requiring a term paper that involves research.

Venues Where Students Have Presented:

- KUs Philosophy Student Association (meets every two weeks during the academic year, with students and faculty in attendance)
 - The Medieval World (fall, Moravian College)
- PASSHE Philosophy and Religious Studies conference (spring semester, different PASSHE school each year)
- Berks County Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference
