THIS YEAR'S STATE OF THE UNIVERSITY ADDRESS

looks at my first five years as president of KU. Though space in a magazine is always limited, the condensed version of the address outlines many of the significant changes and improvements, and highlights new programs just over the horizon.

As I look back, I find one key element has led to the university's current place in history: the generous support of all the individuals who have stepped forward to help make KU the best that it can be. It is the gifts of time, talent, and resources by our alumni, trustees, faculty, administrators, and staff that make Kutztown University as strong as it is today.

Though these last five years were a time of change, many challenges continue to demand our attention.

The beginning of the Fall semester was a difficult time for the KU family, as we dealt with the deaths of three of our students in off campus incidents. One of these deaths was a random act of violence that has received substantial media attention. In cooperation with state and local elected leaders and law enforcement agencies, we are researching funding for a risk assessment study to identify and address safety and security issues. Updates on this and other efforts can be found at www.kutztown.edu/safety.

As we continue to work through the 2007-08 school year, we pledge to meet the challenges that lie ahead and develop the proper resolution to our tasks at hand.

F. Javier Cevallos
President

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania will serve the Commonwealth as a dynamic, technologically advanced, collaborative, learning-centered public university. Kutztown University will be accessible to Pennsylvanians and others, sensitive to the need for diverse backgrounds in its faculty, staff, students and community, accountable to its many constituencies, and actively engaged in the continuous improvement of its programs and services. Above all, Kutztown University will prepare graduates to succeed in a global economy, to contribute to the economic and social well being of the state and nation, to assume active roles in their communities, and to lead productive and meaningful lives.

This calming picture of the Alumni Plaza is a reflection of both the new and the old. The bricks paving the courtyard are inscribed with the names of the people and places that have become part of the KU experience. The waterfall is a source of renewal as children frolic in the cool waters in the summer and classes are held in the courtyard during the school year. Everyday, hundreds of students pass through the plaza on their way from the residence halls on south campus to academic buildings on the north campus.

Reconstructing the Arts at Sharadin

BY CRAIG WILLIAMS

Construction is under way for a new wing.

AS CONSTRUCTION CREWS ON NORTH CAMPUS PREPARE THE FOUNDATION FOR A NEW WING TO THE SHARADIN ART BUILDING, STUDENTS INSIDE CONTINUE TO PAINT, DRAW, AND SCULPT. DESPITE THE HUSTLE-BUSTLE OUTSIDE, IT'S BUSINESS AS USUAL FOR THE COLLEGE OF VISUAL AND PERFORMING ARTS.

OVER THE SUMMER, CONTRACTORS REMODELED MUCH OF THE INSIDE OF SHARADIN IN PREPARATION FOR FALL CLASSES, AND THROUGH CAREFUL PLANNING AND SCHEDULING, FEW CLASSES NEEDED TO BE RELOCATED. WITH THE ADDITION OF A NEW ENTRANCE ON COLLEGE BOULEVARD, STUDENTS CONTINUE TO TAKE CLASSES IN THE BUILDING, WHILE OTHER SECTIONS OF THE STRUCTURE RECEIVE A MAKEOVER.

On the first floor, a completely remodeled ceramics studio showcases the many improvements scheduled for the rest of the building when the project is completed in January 2009.

For Jim Chaney, professor of art education and crafts, the new ceramics studio created this summer has thoroughly modernized his operations. A larger firing room for the kilns, spacious storage areas, and a super efficient ventilation system bring the studio into the 21st Century.

"Before the summer transformation, space was very limited," Chaney said. "Now, from the inside, it doesn't even look like the same building"

In addition to teaching students how to throw clay, form a bowl, and fire a project, Chaney is also in charge of off-loading, storage, and maintenance of the three tons of clay the students use every year.

Jim Chaney

"We have a new hydraulic lift and a thoroughly modern dock facility that allows us to easily transport the raw materials to our new storage rooms," Chaney said. "The wider doors and hallways give us better access to all areas of the building, making it easier to use and completely ADA [Americans with Disabilities Act] compliant."

With cranes and backhoes providing a modernist backdrop to north-facing classroom windows, students are given a front row seat to the construction of their new school.

"From the drawings I've seen, the new building should be pretty nice," said art education major Jeffrey Hartman '10, as he forms an art-deco stylized cup in Chaney's Introduction to Ceramics class. "For now, it's especially nice to be able to work in these new studios."

The Communication Design Department office is scheduled to be moved from the cottage on College Boulevard it is now using to the new building. Dr. William Mowder, dean of the College of Visual and Performing Arts, said this important change will fully integrate the communication design department into the college.

"The total renovations will almost double the usable space," said Mowder. "It's a very complicated renovation and expansion, but when it is finished, KU will have a state-of-the-art facility with much needed upgrades to the infrastructure."

The new wing is expected to be ready for occupancy by August 2008 with the final touches put on the entire project by January 2009.

Next phase of the revitalization of the arts buildings on campus will tackle the renovation and expansion of Schaeffer Auditorium. The plans call for a 40,000-square-foot addition with the construction of a second 350-seat theatre for instructional use, modifications to the stage and stage access, new seating in the auditorium, and renovations throughout the building. ❄

BOOKS, BREAD, AND BEYOND

BY CRAIG WILLIAMS

Ask most people if they have heard of Kutztown University Students Services Inc. [KUSSI] and many will point to the Student Bookstore as the organization's most prominent campus service. Few people realize that this is the university's other major non-profit affiliate organization, joining the KU Foundation in support of the university mission.

Though KUSSI was created primarily to support student organizations and activities, it is more than just textbooks, candy bars, and school supplies. Throughout campus, the KUSSI logo is associated with everything from vending machines, to graduation festivals, concerts, and more.

Established in 1997 as an outgrowth of Student Government Association [SGA], KUSSI not only generates funds for student activities through retail operations and special events, but also provides financial guidance to existing student organizations and helps new student groups find the funding they need to get started. KUSSI also provides funding for athletic equipment, has a small fleet of vans students use for travel to events off campus, and is the main accounting branch of the SGA.

By comparison, the KU Foundation supports the growth and development of the campus infrastructure plus building and renewal projects, in addition to maintaining scholarship funds established by alumni and friends of the university.

The KUSSI mission is focused squarely on the students through their four operating divisions: the Student Bookstore, Goldie's Convenience Store, Auxiliary Services, and Accounting Services.

Of course the most visible operation is the bookstore. Located in the lower level of the McFarland Student Union, the Student Bookstore sells much more than pencils, pens, and paper. To cater to the diverse needs of the students and bolster KU pride, the bookstore carries a large variety of KU licensed clothing, gifts, and memorabilia. Today the KUSSI-run bookstore is a modern retail operation dedicated to service and quality.

Brian Cregar '90, the bookstore's textbook manager, remembers the days before KUSSI operated the store.

"I started as a student worker in the bookstore when it was in the Rickenbach Learning Center in 1988. Before that, the Student Co-op Bookstore was in the basement of Old Main. By the 1990s, the bookstore moved to the North Campus

Amanda Bausher '00, KUSSI marketing coordinator, joins Goldie's manager Carol Althouse at the store.

Student Center, which later became the Student Union Building, and today is the McFarland Student Union.

"Even when I was a student, there was a half-hour wait just to receive your books, because they were handed out one at a time from the service counter. At the modern KUSSI Student Bookstore, customers can browse the self-service shelves, ask for assistance from one of our clerks, or order textbooks directly online. With up to eight check-out counters and bookstore Website orders, we rarely have long waiting lines."

In addition to textbooks, KUSSI stocks all the KU licensed t-shirts, sweatshirts and jackets every dedicated KU supporter needs, right down to the cute and fuzzy KU bears – essential decor for residence halls, apartments, and trophy cases alike.

In contrast to selling bundles of books, KUSSI also runs Goldie's Convenience Store in Golden Bear Village South apartment complex. At Goldie's, students can purchase a light snack, stock up for a late night study session, or enjoy a free cup of coffee during finals week.

To help students stay clean and tidy, KUSSI's auxiliary division manages all washers and dryers on campus. Additional funding sources include sales from snack and beverage machines, caps and gowns for graduation, tickets for trips, and newspaper subscriptions.

Byond the retail division and auxiliary divisions, the organization provides accounting services to all registered student organizations. Through this division, KUSSI helps to fund and manage budgets for service-related student organizations, special interest clubs, Greek organizations, sports and recreational clubs, residence hall organizations, academic clubs, and off-campus student community relations programs – approximately 150 campus organizations in all.

"Perhaps our greatest student organization success story is 'Up 'til Dawn,' which raises money for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital," said Bob Watrous, dean of Student Services and Campus Life, and SGB advisor. (See Under the Tower, page 13.) This year the Connections student orientation program, under the guidance of "Up 'til Dawn," raised more than $3,375 for the benefit of the hospital.

"KUSSI is a valuable campus resource that makes a significant contribution to campus life," Watrous said. "They not only administer the disbursement of the Student Activity Fee, as approved by the Student Government Board, but also provide learning opportunities for the effective management of those disbursed funds directly to the student organizations and campus advisors who serve them. It provides us all an opportunity to encourage students to enhance their campus experiences through participation and creation of student-organized activities as defined by the Student Government Association."

Scott Shapiro '08 is starting his second year of service on the Student Government Board. In his role as parliamentarian, he serves on the judiciary board, the traffic bureau, and the Connections orientation program.

"The SGB is a very important part of campus life," he said "We are the eyes and ears of the student body, and serve as advocates for change."

For Shapiro, SGB provides him with a chance to make a difference in the life of the university while learning valuable leadership skills, made possible by KUSSI's willingness to mentor students.

"It's amazing how KUSSI takes all the funds that are raised throughout the year and organizes them so they are available for budgets, scholarships, and other student focused needs," he said. "The students are very proud of KUSSI's success on our campus."

Next year KUSSI has plans for the grand opening of their next big project:

a brand new store complex on the lower level of the 856-bed residence hall currently under construction next to South Dining Hall.

This 4,000 square-foot operation will offer the standard convenience store items, house an ice cream shop, and provide space for student gatherings and special activities.

"It is nice to know that the support of KU alumni helps to fund activities for current students," said Amanda Bausher '00, KUSSI marketing coordinator.

As a means of returning to the fond memories of their alma mater, alumni often share in the joy of their school's heritage through the purchase of official KU gear and memorabilia, Bausher said.

"KUSSI employees really enjoy meeting alumni during special events on campus," "More than one-third of the KUSSI employees are alumni."

KUSSI executive director Lisa Kowalski agrees: "For the KUSSI staff, it's a joy to watch our students grow and become contributing members of both the campus life and the larger community. It gives us all a real sense of pride and purpose, knowing that we are all working for the future of KU." ❀

deans' corner

THIS ISSUE OF THE DEANS' CORNER RECOGNIZES THE FACULTY MEMBERS FROM EACH COLLEGE WHO RETIRED DURING THE 2006-07 SCHOOL YEAR. EACH SPRING, THESE INDIVIDUALS ARE HONORED DURING A SPECIAL RETIREMENT DINNER HOSTED BY PRESIDENT CEVALLOS. THIS BRIEF OUTLINE OF THEIR ACCOMPLISHMENTS IS BUT A SMALL REMINDER OF THE TREMENDOUS IMPACT THESE INDIVIDUALS HAVE HAD ON THE LIVES OF THEIR STUDENTS, THE UNIVERSITY, AND THE COMMUNITY.

Dr. Bashar Hanna, College Liberal Arts and Sciences

The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences saw the retirement of several noted faculty members during the 2006-07 school year.

Albert F. Answini came to Kutztown State College in 1981 teaching pre-medical courses. He also taught a field ecology course in the Florida Everglades and Keys and ornithology at the Marine Science Consortium at Wallops Island, Va.

In 1990, he was elected president of the consortium and continued in that position until 2006. During his tenure, he established a unique collaboration and affiliation partnership with NASA. He also established and supervised a dolphin behavior study at Assateague, Va., and a coral disease research program at Bay Islands, Honduras. This past summer he was honored for his many years of service to the Marine Science Consortium, which is naming a hall in his honor at their Wallops Island facility.

Bill Bateman retired from KU after 41 years of service. During his tenure, he was chair of the Math and Computer Science Department and served as president of the University Senate. He established one of the finest records of service to the university, serving on and chairing many university-wide committees. One of his most notable achievements was the creation of the combined bachelor and master of science five-year program in computer science, one of only six such programs in the nation. As the last chair of the combined Math and Computer Science Department, he worked to establish two separate departments for both disciplines. Additionally, he has worked as chair of the SECA Charity Campaign and is the co-chair of the 2007 President's Scholarship Ball.

Dr. Percy Dougherty, Department of Geography, started with Kutztown in 1985. His major research included the study of caves, karst topography, planning, water resources, remote sensing, geography of wine, and the geography of Central America. He has a long record of service to his profession and community including numerous publications, teaching awards, and fellowships, and several decades of service on local and state planning commissions, boards, and committees. He is currently a County Commissioner for Lehigh County, Pa., and was recently appointed president of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Allida McKinley, Department of History, retired after 32 years of service to the university. She taught a wide range of popular courses including civilization, the history of England, Tudor-Stuart England, the ancient world, middle ages, a seminar in historical methodology, and the history of American women. In 1998, she became the first woman to win the prestigious Arthur and Isabel Wiesenberger Award for Excellence in Teaching, presented by the Alumni Association. She was extremely active on campus serving on a number of committees during her career and oversaw the hiring of many of the current faculty members in the History Department.

Dr. Ron Rhein, Department of Biology, joined Kutztown State College in 1966. He developed programs in the newly formed Biology Department and worked for the development of a bachelor of science in biology and medical technology. From 1973 to 1975 he served as associate dean of the college, and helped to establish off- and on-campus courses leading to coursework at several hospitals and a bachelor of science in nursing. He served as the first director of continuing education. In 1975 he returned to teaching and worked to establish courses leading to the bachelor of science in environmental science. In 1991, he became the chair of the Biology Department and continued that role until his retirement.

Dr. Robert M. Voytas, Department of Psychology, taught at Kutztown for more than 30 years including courses in consumer psychology, industrial/organizational psychology, social psychology, lifespan and child psychology, and senior seminar. Joining Kutztown State College in 1977, he chaired the Psychology Department from 1989 to 1992. He also served as coordinator of senior comprehensives, survey assessments, and instructional technology.

Interim Dean Dr. Frederick McCoy, College of Education

The College of Education saw two significant retirements during the 2006-07 school year: Dr. Regis Bernhardt, who served as dean of the college, and Dr. Robert Gray, former chair of the Department of Library Science and Instructional Technology.

Dr. Bernhardt joined KU in 2004 after 33 years of teaching and administrative service at Fordham University in New York City. During his time at KU, Bernhardt led the college to re-accreditation with the National Council for Accreditation for Teacher Education, a landmark achievement signaling more than 50 years of continuous accreditation.

Dr. Robert Gray retired after 19 years as a professor in Library Science and Instruction Technology. Gray began at KU in 1988 teaching audiovisual communication. He was instrumental in the department's change from audiovisual communication to instructional technology. Gray designed the fast-track graduate program in digital classroom technology and was a driving force behind the success of the summer graduate programs in instructional technology. He served as department chair when the library science and instruction technology departments merged in 2004.

Interim Dean Dr. Fidelis Ikem, College of Business

During the 2006-07 school year, Raymond Heimbach, Department of Accounting and Finance, retired. He taught at Kutztown for 37 years and was a student favorite for his story-telling abilities. Over the years he taught many subjects, specializing in business law and accounting.

Dr. William Mowder, College of Visual and Performing Arts

The college recognized the retirement of Nicolas Bowen and Dr. Eric Beaven during the 2006-07 school year.

Dr. Eric Beaven, Department of Speech Communication and Theatre, taught persuasive speaking, mass communications and fundamentals of speech. In his classes, Beaven was noted for drawing upon many years of study and practical experience with classical rhetoric as well as Greek, Roman, and British public address.

Nicolas Bowen, Department of Fine Arts, taught photography since joining Kutztown in 1979. His notable exhibitions included "Art and Teaching," Northhampton Community College, Northhampton, Mass., in 1999, and the Lancaster Pennsylvania Summer Arts Festival, 1999, where his work was awarded "Best of Show." In 1993, he was awarded a grant from the State System of Higher Education's Faculty Professional Development Council, Harrisburg, Pa. His work appeared in "Computer Artist," published in 1997, and "Fundamental Photoshop" published in 1999.

25 Years Later: Runner's Record Still Holds

BY JIMMY JOHNSON '09

Mark Kinnaird '83 has no clue why, but he's still the owner of the fastest time in the 200-meter dash at the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Track & Field Championships.

Kinnaird's time edged out Slippery Rock's Bob Brennan by 0.20 seconds with a record-setting 21.19 at the 1982 Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference [PSAC] track and field championships and is still atop the list after 25 years. It's the fifth-longest standing PSAC record, second among track events.

Kinnaird, a four-year member of the KU men's basketball team, was in no position to set this record at the start of his college career. In 1980, he accepted a challenge to try out for the track and field team, coached by the late Ken Meyer.

Two years later, he was sprinting toward a PSAC record. Kinnaird anchored the first-place 400 relay team in 1982, and added a second-place finish in the 100 to go with his record-setting run in the 200. In 1983, he finished first in the 100, 200, and 400 relay, helping KU win the PSAC team title.

"Coach Meyer believed in me and gave me a chance on his track team," Kinnaird said. "Coach Meyer and his family were my family away from home."

As a member of the basketball team, Kinnaird started in 25 games his senior year, averaging 6.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game.

Kinnaird was inducted into the 1989 KU Athletics Hall of Fame and was named to the 1980 men's All Decade Team. He was part of the first Hall of Fame class to include athletes other than members of the football team.

Following graduation at KU, he attended a Philadelphia Eagles mini-camp and went on to coach track and field at Harrisburg High School from 1985-90, leading his team to three Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association Class AAAA track and field titles. He competed for the Philadelphia Gazelle Striders and Shore AC track clubs from 1984-93.

Kinnaird currently works for IBM in Raleigh, N.C., and owns a national event planning company, Kinnaird Enterprises.

He married his wife, Valencia, in 2005, and tries to get to a KU basketball game every two to three years.

Women's Bowling and Lacrosse Head Coaches Named

Kutztown University Director of Athletics Greg Bamberger has selected the head coaches who will roll out the new women's bowling program and lead the re-launch of the women's lacrosse program.

Joe Ambrose will lead the women's bowling team and Sarah Greer '02 returns to KU as head coach of women's lacrosse, which also returns to Kutztown after a 17-year hiatus.

Ambrose, a 27-year Professional Bowling Association member, previously managed the Wallenpaupack Bowling Center in Hawley, Pa., from 1979 to 2001 where he ran leagues, instructed professional lessons, helped establish the junior bowling program, and owned and operated his own pro shop. Ambrose's bowling career includes five sanctioned 300 games – four in the United States Bowling Congress, and Professional Bowlers Association [PBA] – and he has competed extensively on the regional and national PBA tours, including six PBA national championships and three U.S. opens.

Ambrose was inducted into the Wayne Area Sports Hall of Fame in 2006 for lifetime achievements in bowling, golf, tennis, and basketball.

Greer, then Sarah Wesner, was a four-year letter winner on the KU field hockey team from 1997-2000. She obtained her bachelor's degree in social work in 2002. She returns to Kutztown from Gwynedd-Mercy College, where she was the head coach of the school's field hockey team. While there, she served as assistant coach and interim head coach of the women's lacrosse squad. She also was the intramural and facilities coordinator and the senior woman administrator. Her field hockey team was a National Field Hockey Coaches Association Academic Award recipient each of her four seasons. Greer obtained her master's degree in school counseling at Gwynedd-Mercy in 2006.

Greer began coaching in the collegiate ranks as a part-time assistant with KU's field hockey team in 2001, under the direction of her mother, Betty Wesner, who is the head field hockey coach at KU.

The women's lacrosse program was sponsored at Kutztown from 1975-90 and was responsible for the first women's championship in school history, winning the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference title in 1982.

Head Football Coach Raymond Monica (right), pictured with hall of fame former coach George Baldwin, would like to thank everyone who participated in the inaugural Maroon & Gold Football Golf Outing on Friday, Aug. 3 at Wedgewood Golf Course in Coopersburg, Pa. All proceeds from the tournament benefited the KU football scholarship fund. Next year's outing will once again be held at Wedgewood on Friday, Aug. 1, 2008. For more information, please contact the football office at 484-646-4187.

Amanda Geisinger Goes to Nick

KU senior Amanda Geisinger spent last summer in a dream-come-true internship in New York City with Nickelodeon, makers of the famous cartoon Spongebob Squarepants. Working in Nickelodeon's 40th floor offices on Times Square, her experiences were unlike anything she could have imagined. Her duties for the cartoon and children's show channel included adding sound effects to cartoons and critiquing video games for Nickelodeon's Website. Geisinger is finishing a dual major in art education and communication design.

"My parents were skeptical about me living in New York," she said of leaving her home in Boyertown, Pa., for the Big Apple. "But I just love going to the city."

Her future plans include creating the next hit video game for Nick, which she says is now under development.

KU Jazz CD on Hit Parade

The KU Jazz Ensemble I is back on the hit parade with the release of its third CD "The Best is Yet to Come – Music of the Rat Pack." This is the second CD by the jazz ensemble picked up by Sea Breeze Records of Pismo Beach, Calif. Like the previous release "Dance You Monster," the disc will be distributed both online and to music stores across the nation.

The recording program at KU Jazz Studies is attracting national attention. Recently the 2007 DownBeat Magazine Best Jazz College Vocalist award went to KU senior Kristin Grassi, and an article in Jazz Times magazine references the program with quotations from Dr. Kevin Kjos, director of the Jazz Ensemble I and director of Jazz Studies at KU.

Additionally, James Cargill '04 shared vocal duties on the CD. Cargill is currently appearing in "The Full Monty" at the Montgomery Theater, Souderton, Pa.

For more information or to purchase the CD, call the Jazz Studies Office at 610-683-1583 or through the KU Student Bookstore. Song samples of all three Jazz Ensemble I recordings can be heard at: <http://www.kutztown.edu/acad/music/jazzstudies/recordings.html>.

This year the Connections student orientation program, under the guidance of the Up 'til Dawn student organization, raised more than $3,375 for the benefit of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Decision Makers Forum to Feature Jeb Bush and Bill Bradley

The 19th Annual Kutztown University Decision Makers Forum, scheduled for Thursday, March 27, 2008, will feature former Florida Governor Jeb Bush and former New Jersey Senator Bill Bradley. The Decision Makers Forum offers a unique opportunity for regional business leaders to network with colleagues, guests, and acquaintances; to dine on a sumptuous buffet dinner; and to enjoy a presentation from exceptional leaders of achievement in politics, journalism, and business. Previous Decision Makers Forum speakers include Lady Margaret Thatcher, Michael Eisner, Tim Russert, President George H.W. Bush and General Colin L. Powell (ret.). Corporate sponsorship packages are available by calling the Kutztown University Foundation Office, 610-683-1394. Individual tickets will be available beginning in January.

On the opening day of the fall semester, Melissa Hershey '87, Alumni Association President, [left], presented the 2007 Arthur and Isabel Wiesengerger Faculty Award for Excellence in Teaching to Dr. Elaine Reed, Department of English, and Director of the KU Women's Center.

ALUMNI AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

Each year the Awards Committee solicits nominations for outstanding alumni in several categories. The committee meets each spring to determine the award winners, and those individuals are honored at an Awards Luncheon on Alumni Weekend. Please select the appropriate category for the person you are nominating, complete the requested information, and return by February 1, 2008.

Nominee Name: _____ Class Year _____

The Early Career Excellence Alumni Award (formerly the Young Alumni Award) – recognizes alumni who have graduated within 15 years of being nominated for the award and who are attaining notable success in their chosen profession.

The Rothermel Alumni Award – recognizes the notable and distinguished achievements of alumni in their professional life 16 years or more after graduation from KU.

Nominations for the Citation Award for Service and Professional Achievement, the university's highest honors, are derived from nominations from the Rothermel Awards. The committee will review all submissions received and determine recipients for the Citation Award(s).

THE STORY BEHIND THE BRICKS

The Alumni Plaza is one of the most picturesque locations on campus.

Decorating the main court are the many bricks donated by alumni and friends of the university inscribed with the names of alumni, friends, and family who hold the Kutztown experience as a special part of their lives.

Each issue, the Tower will feature the story behind one of these bricks.

In this issue we look at:

"The Legacy of the Farmhouse Crew" as illuminated by one of its members.

"The brick was created to honor all these good people who go back in time to Kutztown State College from 1973 to 1976. There were 21 total friendships formed, and all are still alive today! Out of the 21, five marriages were made and one long-term relationship was formed that still continues today.

"This group of friends had a special bond. Whenever we would see each other, the conversation would start where it ended the last time. We socialized back then as a group, from class time until the wee hours of the morning, especially on the weekends. We spent time in the old Kutztown pubs, during the infamous farm house parties, and the first annual pig roast.

"We are all part of the working world today; responsible adults with children and some with grandchildren. Around October of every year, we red-circle the annual Homecoming weekend and start making plans for this spirited time.

"Some people say the friends you make in college are the ones that last a lifetime. There is truth in these words. For all of us, our Kutztown State College memories will last forever. Many thanks to these good friends and to Kutztown University," One of the Farmhouse Crew, Class of '76.

The inscribed messages on the bricks offer words of encouragement and leave a lasting testament of the people, places, and events that compose the KU experience. If you are interested in purchasing a brick for inscription in the Alumni Plaza (prices range from $300 to $1,000), please call the Office of Development at 610-683-1394. ✖

The jaunty young man dodging the Cheyney player in the summer issue of the Tower Hindsight is none other than Bill Wiggins '63, who writes that he carried the ball all the way to a 30-yard touchdown.

"That year was KSC's [Kutztown State College] first winning season in many years, and one in which we were undefeated in all of our home games, which I don't think has been equaled too many times," writes Wiggins, who was inducted into the KU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1978. That game featured seven Kutztown touchdowns by seven different players.

The President's Address: STATE OF THE UNIVERSITY 2007

Abridged – A five-year review

It is hard for me to believe that this semester marks the beginning of my sixth year as president of Kutztown University. Things have happened so rapidly I feel that I have just arrived here, and that I have been here for a long time.

Needless to say, a college president does not accomplish anything on her or his own. The role of the president is to energize individuals and inspire creativity, to prioritize among the many new ideas, and then find the resources to help carry them to fruition.

Our greatest challenge, like most U.S. universities, is financial. Maintaining the quality of our programs during five years of budgetary reductions has forced difficult decisions. It has been a challenge to find ways to increase revenues and cut expenses. Through a group effort we have maintained a strong financial stand. We will continue to look for new sources of revenue as we prepare next year's budget.

ACADEMIC ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Accreditation of our professional programs has provided us a national benchmark and established standards of quality for our programs. The PASSHE Strategic Plan calls for every program that could be accredited by a recognized external organization to be accredited or on the way to accreditation by 2009. We have accredited or reaccredited 10 programs, and are in the process of accrediting five more.

We have established several new academic programs: master of social work, music education, biochemistry, Germanic studies, and made progress in a multicultural minor.

We also split the Department of Math and Computer Sciences, and the Department of Social Work and Criminal Justice, each into two departments. Creating these new departments allows us to better serve the growing number of students in the four distinct disciplines.

As part of a system initiative, we have established the Frederick Douglass Institute at Kutztown University with a goal to provide multicultural opportunities across the curriculum. We look forward to the enrichment it will bring to campus.

We have initiated the Ambassadors of Learning Recognition program to highlight and honor faculty who have been identified by ADA [Americans with Disabilities Act] students for going the extra mile in classroom accommodations and learning concepts.

Because we live in a global economy, our students need access to opportunities to live and learn in different cultures. In addition to many long-standing programs abroad in England, Spain, Germany, Russia, and Kenya; we have worked to open new opportunities in India and Ecuador; re-energize programs in China and Ukraine; strengthen our ties with our long-standing partners; and established the Office of International Programs.

TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES

We all know how pervasive technology has become. In academia, technology can dramatically enhance the classroom experience and assist faculty in their instructional goals. We recognize that students already consider technology a routine part of their lives and will use many new technologies in their professional lives. Thus, we must ensure they have access to new technological tools as part of their overall learning experience.

Thanks to the Board of Governors' Instructional Technology Fee, we went from a handful of "smart classrooms" to 141 classrooms with technologically advanced multimedia equipment; almost every classroom on campus. We find our faculty members are very excited about integrating the new technologies into the classroom.

I have always believed the Rohrbach Library is the heart of the university. Our librarians have done an outstanding job of capturing the opportunities the digital era brings. Online access to numerous databases and journals has grown exponentially, and thanks to the instructional technology fee, we have been able to ensure on-line access to those resources. Word for word, document for document, technology gives us access to many more volumes and journals in real time and at less cost than hard copies.

Thanks to the vision and generosity of our alumnus, Larry Stuardi '79, we have access to a state-of-the-art research facility just a few miles east of campus. TEK Park brings together business, industry, and education in very creative ways. It provides research and lab space for our faculty, as well as a variety of internship opportunities for our students. The companies moving to this facility include: fiber optics and micro chip fabrication, medical supplies, data recovery, security, advertising, and marketing firms. They all have one thing in common; they see the potential of working with KU.

A FOCUS ON THE COMMUNITY

One of the commitments I made early on was to create an active presence in downtown Reading and Allentown.

The Langan Allied Health Academy in Reading is a unique partnership with the Hispanic Center, Saint Joseph's Hospital, and Reading Area Community College. The academy, in the center of town, offers an MBA and the KU Small Business Development Corporation program in Spanish as well.

In order to make the transition from a community college to a four-year institution a seamless process for both students and faculty, we developed an agreement with Montgomery County Community College to allow students to transfer all their credits [based on a pre-approved list] to Kutztown, and are currently drafting a similar agreement with Reading Area Community College. Beneficial to all parties, these new transfer agreements encourage students to start their education knowing they can easily transfer their credits to KU.

In another effort to encourage students to continue their education after high school, and to make it more affordable, we are working on dual enrollment programs with area high schools. These programs let high school students take college courses to satisfy high school requirements.

The Donley Center in Allentown allows us to work with Lehigh Carbon Community College and offer a seamless transition to our four-year bachelor's degree in education. We hope to expand our offerings with a criminal justice program to interface with the college's program.

The Institute for the Advancement of Children's Environmental Health is a very exciting new development and is designed to study and monitor the effects environmental pollution has on children's health. The project is a partnership between the institute, the university, the KU Foundation, two hospitals, a number of physicians and pediatric centers, and private businesses. The Berks County Commissioners have committed $100,000 a year for 15 years to the project. The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection will provide us air monitoring equipment. The potential for research, grants, and internships for our students is tremendous. There are only four such Institutes in the nation.

With a group of faculty and students in the visual arts, we rented an empty store on Main Street, Kutztown, and created the Eckhaus art gallery. This space gives us a very visible presence in the downtown business district, and is used for art exhibits as well as workshops for the entire community. Now in its second year, the project has become a welcomed new addition to the town.

ADMISSIONS AND TRANSFER

KU has become a primary destination school for many high school seniors. Surveys over the last three years show that we are the number one choice for 70 percent or more of our students. That is outstanding for a regional, access-oriented public university. Projections tell us the number of high school graduates who typically enroll will increase one more year and then level off until 2016 when a slow decline will begin. It is crucial for us to grow at the appropriate rate to serve the students in our region, while not overbuilding programs or facilities over the next 10 years.

Diversity has continued to increase. The entering class of 2007 is projected to be 17 percent minorities, the most diverse entering class in our history. Our multicultural marketing efforts have attracted traditionally under-represented students, and our admissions office has done a truly exemplary job of making them feel welcome during campus visits and helping them enroll. At the same time, our first year retention rate has climbed to almost 78 percent for all students.

KUTZTOWN UNIVERSITY FOUNDATION PROJECTS

We partnered with the KU Foundation on several projects to leverage their borrowing power and ability to respond to construction needs faster and cheaper than the university can. Since 2002, we have accomplished much including the construction of Golden Bear South apartment complex. This project let us expand our educational in-residence opportunities by 1,400 students.

The KU Foundation, together with the alumni through their generous donations, built one of the most beautiful places on campus, the Alumni Plaza. This wonderful spot of solitude and beauty has become a place where we congregate and where art and music find a niche.

UNIVERSITY CAPITAL PROJECTS

We have been very aggressive regarding the Capital Funding Plans put forth by Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education [PASSHE]. Because we successfully execute projects and the quality of the results, and because we work closely with the responsible PASSHE Offices, we have been able to garner a lion's share of the capital monies over the last five years.

The Boehm Science Center, a project that was underway when I arrived in 2002 and was completed in 2003, is a combination of new lab, classroom, and office space and complete renovation of an existing facility. We also removed one building, and created, following faculty suggestions, the exterior bio-lab between the renovated planetarium and the Science Center. This feature also serves as a storm water retention pond and is an environmental best practices concept.

After many years of planning, we finally received state authorization, and funds, to build a new heating plant. The project, now complete, will allow us to move from coal to gas, a much cleaner and more efficient energy source.

In 2001, the student body approved a fee to construct a new Recreation Center. It opened the fall semester of 2006, and is truly an amazing facility. Our campus population has totally embraced the center and its concept of health and fitness; a great learning goal outside what one would normally consider a university mission.

The newest addition to campus, the Academic Forum has provided us with much needed state-of-the-art classrooms, and new places for our students to eat, meet, congregate, and study.

A new residence hall now under construction on south campus will add 856 beds, and is the largest building project ever on our campus in both size and cost. It is also the largest bonded facility project in the history of PASSHE.

The renovation and expansion of Sharadin Art Building is now underway. Once the project is completed, we will proceed to renovate and expand Schaeffer Auditorium, thus bringing our visual and performing arts facilities to a standard reflective of the high quality and tradition of our nationally recognized arts programs.

LOCALLY FUNDED AND EXECUTED PROJECTS

We also completed several smaller, non-capital projects. Our language laboratory has been renovated and appropriately re-equipped. We have new artificial turf, a resurfaced running track, and lights in our stadium.

We redesigned the Stratton Administration Center entrance to be more aesthetically pleasing and to allow such necessary moves as relocating the Advising Center to the first floor, and the Career Center to the main lobby to be more accessible to students.

And during the last 18 months we have made significant progress to ensure equal access to everyone, assuring that our campus remains one of the most accessible in the state system.

Hundreds of other projects were accomplished during the last five years, to include much maintenance and repair. We take very seriously our duty to be the stewards of such a wonderful campus, which represents almost $400 million in assets to the Commonwealth.

The next major project is to renovate Lytle Hall or demolish it and build a new facility. Like the Grim Building, Lytle simply may not be worth the renovation cost, and we may be better served by a new building. An upcoming feasibility study will give us the details to consider. We also have some smaller projects in planning. Our master plan includes a new grounds/garage building and the demolition of the old heating plant. When this is accomplished, hopefully by 2011, we plan to expand our tennis courts to 12 to be eligible for National Collegiate Athletic Association tournaments. We also want to reorient the softball/baseball fields and add seating. Tennis, softball, and baseball are among our best athletic programs, but it is hard to enjoy them when there is no place to sit.

Our Housing Master Plan will also keep us busy. Some residence halls have not been renovated since their construction in the late '50s and early '60s. We need to bring them into at least the late 20th century.

ADVANCEMENT

Our Scholarship Ball deserves special recognition. The impetus for the creation of the ball came from Guido '74 and Susan Pichini, and thanks to their efforts the Scholarship Ball is now a KU tradition. The proceeds from the ball go entirely to recruit and retain high achieving students. The money is not placed in the endowment, but rather in a self-depleting fund. Thus, the donors know that every dollar raised goes directly to students.

SUMMARY

In conclusion, these have been five exciting and energizing years for the campus and for me personally. I believe we have in place the right infrastructure and the momentum to take us to an even higher level of accomplishments over the next five years. Through all these challenges and changes, we must also keep in mind our mission as a comprehensive, public access university, and maintain the goals we set in place in our Vision Statement: KU will be the region's center for excellence in academics, culture, and public engagement, in order to prepare our students to meet lifelong challenges and responsibilities within a complex and diverse community.

KU FOUNDATION NEWS: 2008 Marks Changes in New Scholarship Endowment Minimum

The minimum fund balance necessary to endow a new scholarship will increase from $10,000 to $25,000 on July 1, 2008 as a result of a recommendation of the Kutztown University Foundation Board of Directors to the Kutztown University Council of Trustees.

In an endowed scholarship, a portion of an endowment's income is used to fund a scholarship. The endowment's principal is held in perpetuity by the foundation.

Currently, the foundation makes available 4.75 percent of a fund's balance to be awarded.

Just 10 years ago, a scholarship endowed at the minimum level of $10,000 provided a scholarship equal to 15 percent of tuition. Now, that same scholarship covers only 7 percent.

The new minimum will raise the portion of tuition funded through the scholarship to about 17 percent.

All presently endowed scholarships and new scholarships established or initiated by June 30, 2008 below the $25,000, may be able to remain at their current level.

The percentage made available for scholarships may fluctuate, depending upon the performance of the endowment fund. Universities make available anywhere from 3 percent to 5 percent of fund balances for scholarships. Kutztown University has always been at the high end of the range.

For specific questions regarding scholarships or other endowed funds, please contact Dick Button, interim vice president for advancement, at 610-683-1394 or button@kutztown.edu.

hindsight

Here is a photo of Chez Nous. Located in the lower level of Rothermel Hall, it was a gathering place for students to study, talk, and grab a bite to eat in the '70s. Rumor has it that across campus students named another snack bar Two Chez. If you know where Two Chez was located, please write. Submissions to Hindsight are always welcome. Send to Craig Williams, Tower editor, Kutztown University, P.O. Box 730, Kutztown, PA 19530 or cwilliam@kutztown.edu. For the answer to the Summer '07 Hindsight photo, please turn to page 18.
