Apply for an FEA Scholarship to Study Abroad!

The Fund for Education Abroad (FEA) was established to enlighten America's next generation of thinkers and leaders by providing access to study abroad through the provision of scholarships. Americans who study abroad return with a renewed perspective of their place in the world and a better understanding of how they can participate in an increasingly interconnected global environment.

NEXT DEADLINE:
January 16, 2015 (for students planning to study abroad during summer 2015, fall 2015 or spring 2016)

FUNDING AMOUNT
Up to $10,000

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:
Applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents currently enrolled as undergraduates in US universities or colleges, who plan to study abroad for at least four weeks between May 2015 and May 2016.

See backside for a full list of our 2014-15 winners!

VISIT FEA:
www.fundforeducationabroad.org
p: 202.349.7340
e: fea@fundforeducationabroad.org

Darius Carey
Metropolitan State University of Denver
Africana Studies and Sociology
Accra, Ghana

Victoria Kappel
University of Oklahoma
Microbiology
Arezzo, Italy

Laura Mata
Boston College
Nursing
Quito, Ecuador
2014-2015 Scholarship Winners Statistical Snapshot...

62% are first-generation college students—96% are non-traditional or of minority background
90% will study outside Western Europe—33% are STEM Majors

- Claire Cohen
  University of Colorado
  Boulder Sociology
  Kathmandu, Nepal

- Laura Mata
  Boston College
  Nursing
  Quito, Ecuador

- Zachary Phillip Tanner
  North Carolina A&T State University
  Political Science
  San José, Costa Rica

- Lashanda Coq
  Rutgers University
  Nutritional Science and Latino & Hispanic Caribbean Studies
  Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

- Lynette McGraw
  GateWay Community College
  Photography
  Prague, Czech Republic

- Kathy Tran
  University of Utah
  Mechanical Engineering
  Seoul, South Korea

- Ignacio Cruz
  University of Texas at Austin
  Corporate Communication
  Accra, Ghana

- Michael McLeod
  The Rochester Institute of Technology
  Computer Engineering Technology
  Kyoto, Japan

- Nyasia White
  Villanova University
  Nursing
  Antananarivo, Madagascar

- Christine Germann
  Saint Mary’s College
  Global Studies and Justice Education
  Iringa, Tanzania

- Morgan Pritchett
  Florida International University
  Advertising and Brazilian Studies
  Belo Horizonte, Brazil

- Shalisha Witherspoon
  Florida International University
  Computer Information Technology, Japanese Language and Literature
  Kyoto, Japan

- Mellanie Griffin-Michael
  Lesley University
  Psychology
  Örebro, Sweden

- Martha Ramos
  University of Texas at Arlington
  Linguistics and Arabic
  Amman, Jordan

- Shonda Witherspoon
  Florida International University
  Computer Information Technology, Japanese Language and Literature
  Kyoto, Japan

- Victoria Kappel
  University of Oklahoma
  Microbiology
  Arezzo, Italy

- Madison Rogers
  Rutgers University
  English and Spanish
  Valparaíso, Chile

- Anna Balmilero
  University of Kansas
  Computer Science
  Sharjah, United Arab Emirates

- Harrison Lefrois
  University of Nebraska at Omaha
  Mathematics
  Moscow, Russia

- Nicolas Sawyer
  University of Central Florida
  Film Studies
  Prague, Czech Republic

- Darius Carey
  Metropolitan State University of Denver
  Africana Studies and Sociology
  Accra, Ghana

Support for the Fund for Education Abroad is provided by generous donors, foundations, corporations, and the following FEA Global Sponsors: