ATTENTION ESL AND WORLD LANGUAGE TEACHERS!

2014 ACTFL National Language Teacher of the Year Linda Egnatz presents Focus on Interculturality: Embedding Culture through Story to Build Language Proficiency

Move beyond food and fiestas to the cultural perspectives rooted in the target language. Encourage the growth of student language proficiency and interculturality through lessons that compare and contrast cultural differences due to history or environment. Combine authentic resources and descriptive narrative to tell a historical tale that supports diversity.

Sponsored by the KU Department of Modern Language Studies

QUESTIONS? Email Prof. Rachel L. Salerno at salerno@kutztown.edu or Prof. Scheri Zúñiga-Murphy at szuniga@kutztown.edu.

Linda Egnatz is a Nationally Board Certified Spanish teacher at Lincoln-Way High School in Frankfort, IL and serves as an adjunct professor at DePaul University. She is a Past President of the Illinois Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages and continues to be the ICTFL Webmaster. A frequent keynote speaker and presenter at language conferences, she welcomes the opportunity to coach teachers on moving their students toward language proficiency. Egnatz is a Golden Apple Teacher Fellow and was named the 2014 ACTFL National Language Teacher of the Year.

WHEN: Saturday April 16, 2016 8:45am-12pm
WHERE: deFrancesco room 210
FEE: $30 Teachers/$5 Students (includes breakfast served 8:15-8:45am)
REGISTRATION DEADLINE: March 21, 2016
ACT 48 credits: 3
REGISTER ONLINE AT: www.kutztown.edu/modernlanguages/