BYLAWS OF THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN
KUTZTOWN UNIVERSITY
KUTZTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

I. Purpose

The Commission on the Status of Women is established as an official forum to address equity issues of concern to all women at Kutztown University. Gender issues will receive unrelenting attention. The Commission will recommend the conditions necessary for women students, faculty, staff, and administrators to assert their expectations of respect, recognition, and reward. Special attention will be devoted to the concerns of minority women and underutilization of the talents and perspectives of women throughout the University.

II. Membership Selection and Terms

A. The Commission will meet three times per semester throughout the academic year and report to Administrative Council. The Administrative Council reports directly to the President. The Commission will consist of twenty-seven members appointed for a two or one year term (see membership list below for terms.) There is no limit to the number of terms one can consecutively serve.

B. Composition (27 members):

- Four female faculty, one from each college, all with 2 year terms, staggered so that two are replaced each year. Should there be no one willing to serve from a specific college, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a female faculty from one of the other colleges.
- Four male faculty, one from each college, all with 2 year terms, staggered so that two are replaced each year. Should there be no one willing to serve from a specific college, the Committee on Committees shall appoint a male faculty from one of the other colleges.
- One female faculty from Administrative Faculty, the Library, or Counseling and Human Services, with a two year term.
- Two female representatives from professional staff, non-faculty. One from SCUPA and one from management, each with a 2 year term, staggered so one is replaced each year.
